The Shield

For everything there is a season;
and a time for every matter
under heaven

A time to be born,
a time to die,
A time to plant, and a time to harvest what is planted;

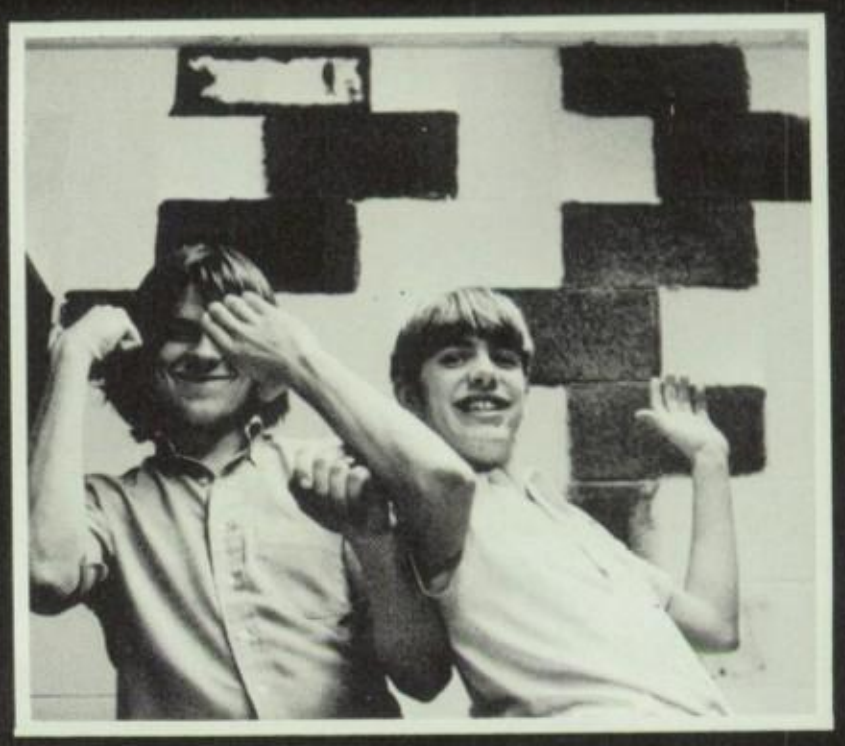
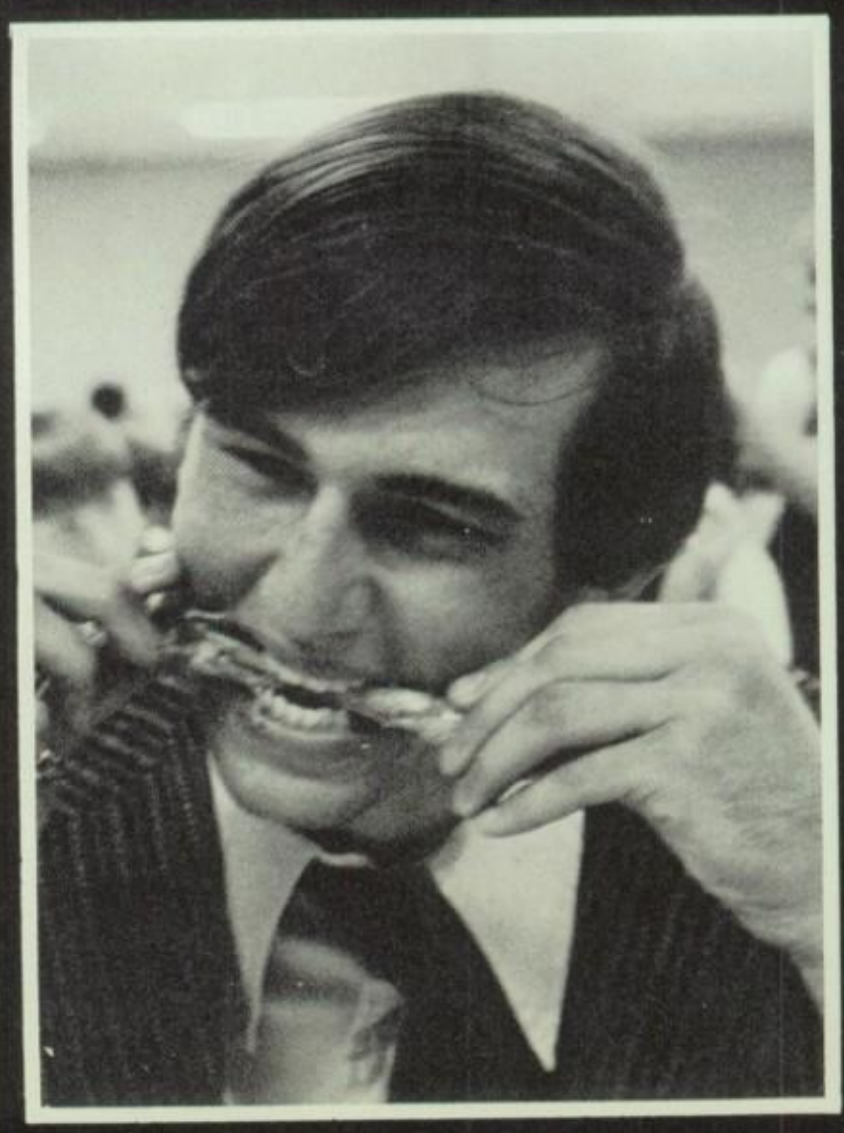
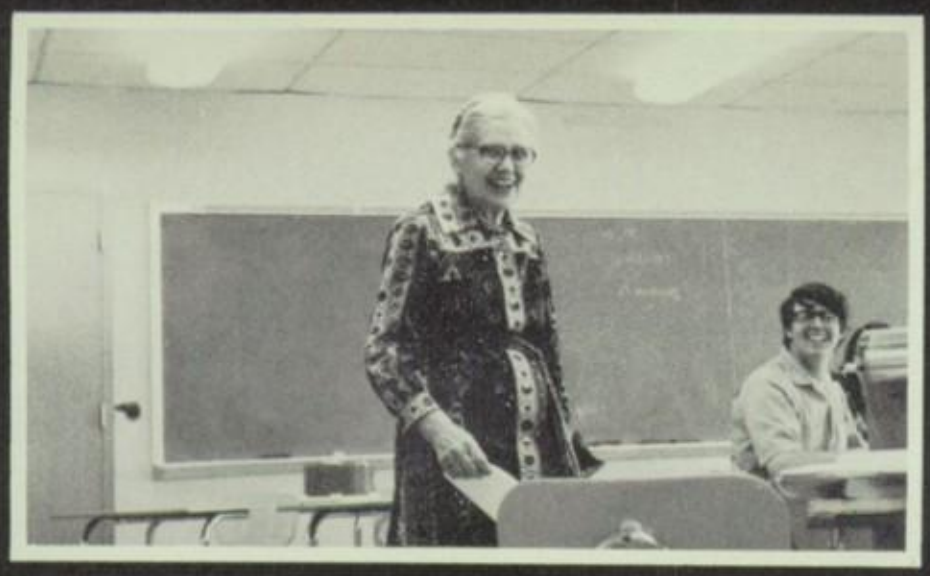
A time to kill,
and a time to heal;
A time to break down,
and a time to build up.







A time to weep,
and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn,
and a time to dance;

Drama in Action at OHS

This is the first active drama club we have had in several years. Two performances were put on during the year. One, at Christmas, was entitled "Muggsy's Merry Christmas". The full-length play that was produced in April was "Rest Assured". This was a three-act comedy, which involved, not only the members of Drama Club, but anyone else who wished to try out for a part or just help behind the scenes.

The cast of "Muggsy's Merry Christmas" was: Mark VanHook, Muggsy; Jackie Parker, Elmer; Carol Donohoe, Mrs. Maxwell; Stephen Titus, Mr. Maxwell; Denise Bostdorf, Wilbur; and Terrill Wenner, Betty Lou.

The cast of "Rest Assured" was; Becky Perez, Mrs. Morlock; Willard Rathburn, Mr. Morlock; Mark VanHook, Luigi Lanconi; Steve Spathelf, Joe Lanconi; Linda Hahn, Miss Akers; Denise Bostdorff, Jessica; Paula Wolfram, Mary Morlock; Jackie Parker, Mildred; Steve Titus, Dr. Brown; Frank Kiel, George Pleu; Rick Wells, Mr. Black; and Mark Yeary, the Devil Lucifer.

Those helping behind the scenes on the stage crew were: Carole Donohoe, Kathy Meyer, Sue Dauer, Prompters: Dave Garrett, Lighting; Frank Keil, Curtains; Anna Repp, Make-Up; Sue Lehnert, Publicity and Make-Up.

Storm Reig

The Knights played against the Woodmore Wildcats that night and won the game by a score of 14-7.

Queen Storm and her court also reigned over the Homecoming Dance held the next evening in the school cafeteria. The theme for the night was "Time of the Season" and orange, brown, and yellow were the colors. Music for the night was provided by "Shad Rack".

The Spirit

"The Spirit of Youth" was the theme of the 1974 Junior - Senior Prom which was held at the Grand Rapids American Legion Hall. Beautiful centerpieces of yellow daises and chrysanthemums highlighted each table. The yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the entire hall and also extended to the refreshment table where punch and cookies were served.

Carole Murdock was crowned Queen, with Bob Culumber crowned as King. The Senior Attendant was Jackie Kronberg and the Junior Attendant was Robin Merrill. The Queen and her attendants received beautiful long-stemmed yellow roses.

The Jack Cook Orchestra entertained those attending the prom, and Smack Dab played at the post-prom which was held at Varsity Lanes. Post-prom included such varied things as bowling, shooting, pool, eating good food, and listening to the band.

The Junior Class Advisors were Miss Betty Tennar, Mrs. Ann Laskey, Mrs. Hazel Tracy, Mr. Bernard Scott, Mr. Roland VanAusdale, and Mr. Robert Mustain, Jr.

Boys' and Girls' State is a week-long activity where the boys and girls involved take an active part in the working of the government of Ohio. Positions that the young people take at Buckeye State range from being the Governor, to the job of being dog catcher. But whatever the job, the experience gained at Buckeye Boys' and Girl's State will stay with the individual for a lifetime.

Boys' State was held this year from June 13 to 21, at Ashland College, which is near Columbus. Girls' State was held from June 15 to 23 at Capital University, which is also close to Columbus.

Class of '74

"Be yourself: it is the only thing you can do better than anyone else," was an appropriate motto for the 1974 graduating class as Senior Class President Randy Baumbarger addressed the audience speaking of discontent with Board rules and policies.

The top two seniors, Valedictorian Beth Carlen and Salutatorian Sue Lehnert, stressed the need for quality education and directed optimistic comments and thanks to parents, teachers and friends present. Both girls were recipients of trophies for their tremendous scholastic achievements, which did not hinder them from being active student leaders throughout their schooling.

Seniors dressed in black and white robes received diplomas from Board of Education President Morris Wenig as high school Principal Don Hummel called the names. Mrs. Ann Titus, senior adviser, helped distribute gold cords to National Honor Society members. All graduates received their class flower, a white rose tied with a blue ribbon, from senior adviser Mrs. Arlene Kirkland as they left the stage.

Guest speaker, Coach Richard Heintschel, emphasized the importance of graduates to set goals for themselves and work hard to attain them.

Retiring teachers Mrs. Eva Brown, Mrs. Bertha Carter, and Mrs. Arlene Wellman received a dozen roses from the Senior Class presented to them by Shirlee Wenig, Senior Secretary

Commencement exercises included music provided by the Band led by Mr. Michael Grassley, and choral selections form the Mixed Chorus under Mrs. Arlene Wellman. Reverend Tom Witzel, Plain Church, delivered the Invocation and Benediction.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

All sorts of things happen to people after graduation. Let's take a look ahead to the year 1984 (ten years later) and see what the Otsego class of '74 is up to.

April Austin, who always got the best grades on our government tests, is now a government teacher. I just hope she's not as rough as Mr. Mustain was.

Storm Bader, who went to Patricia Stevens majoring in public relations, is doing all of Tontogany's business advertising.

Connie Ballard, who during our senior year was a waitress at Pizza Hut, now owns a chain of them throughout the country.

Randy Baumbarger has gone a lot farther than his cousin Jack. He's got a traveling jazz band. He's really gone a long way since playing saxophone for Mr. Grassley's band.

Steve Bisher is a race car driver. He plans to drive in the Grand Prix next year.

Joy Burkholder is still pinching her pennies. I hear she's running a next-to-new shop now. Just like Joy. Nothing was ever old enough to quit using in her book.

Beth Carlen has earned all degrees possible at Toledo University and is still trying to decide what she wants to do.

Bob Columber and Carole Murdock, '74 Prom King and Queen, are now Mr. and Miss America.

Mary Donohoe owns a chain of drug stores. Lane's of course!

Cindy Emch and her husband Tom own a dance school where they teach ballet, tap dancing, waltzing, etc. I hear it's expensive but worth the trouble.

Mary Jenson is a quarterback for the New York Jets and Scott Brown is a fullback.

Elaine Grimm now owns her own beauty shop with the latest hair styles and even manicures and make-up jobs if you like.

Sandy Betz and Mary Hinton are dental assistants for Marcus Welby, who surprised everyone by changing his profession within just a few television seasons.

Janice Kellermeier now types at the flying speed of 333 words per minute. If only Mrs. Laskey could see her now.

Tina Lance is a business teacher now. What a surprise to us all.

Sue Lehnert is a free lance court reporter making loads and loads of money. I know that girl would make it.

Terry Lennard owns farm land all over the United States. He has all hired hands now and all he does is give orders.

Mary Marshall owns a chain of Ponderosa Restaurants where Larry Sproul and Willard Rathbun are still broiling steaks.

Randy McCabe is a big time wrestler now and he just had a victory over the Sheik. He will challenge Mad Mountain Cannon next. My how strong he is. Mr. Mustain must be so proud.

Paul Morlock is still doing all in his power to tantalize Mr. Hummel with a little help from Rod Kramp.

Dan Murphy is playing trumpet on the Lawrence Welk Show. He never used bubbles during marching band at Otsego.

Chuck Myers is a mechanic, but strictly for Steve Bisher's race car. What dedication!

Sheryl Murray is an RN at Medical Center. Her mother must be very proud of her little nurse.

Cathy Parsons is still life guard at Grand Rapids. That girl swims like a fish.

Cathy Rudd has her own OHS homework center for all students who have better things to do other then studying.

Linda Schatzke is still a secretary. Wonder if the boss chases her around the desk?

Pam Smith is still driving around in her little Mustang trying to decide what to do with her life. Hope she decides soon.

Steve Spathelf has become rich and famous with his beautiful paintings. Mr. Kauber must be so proud.

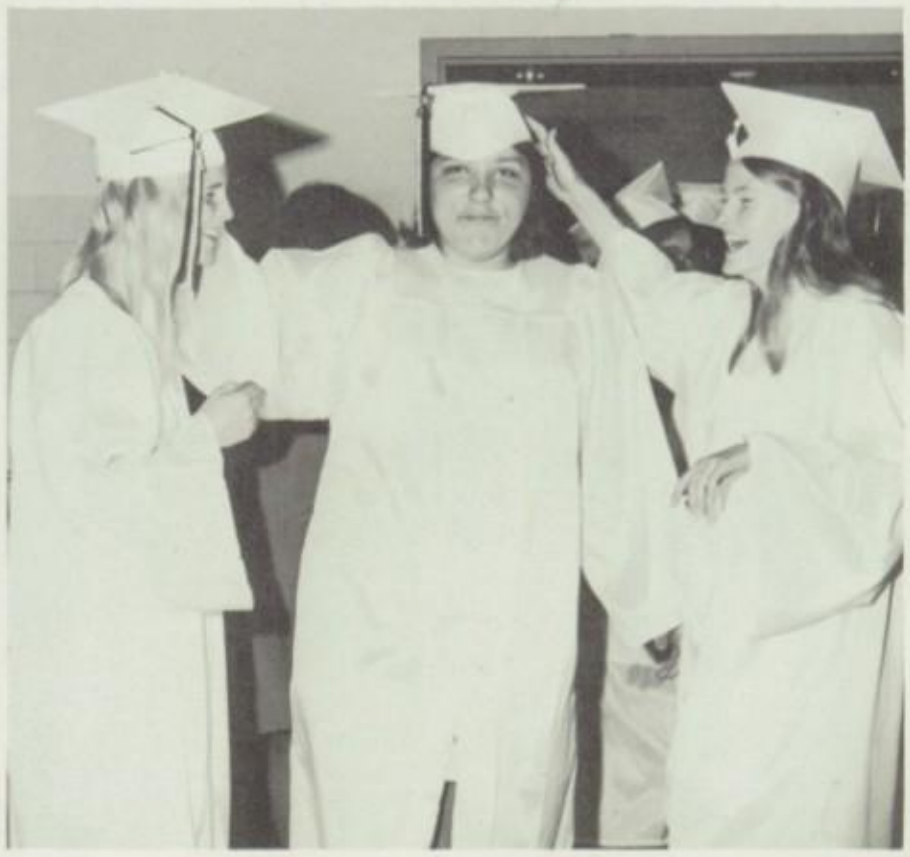
Mike VanHook is superintendent of Otsego now, following in his father's footsteps.

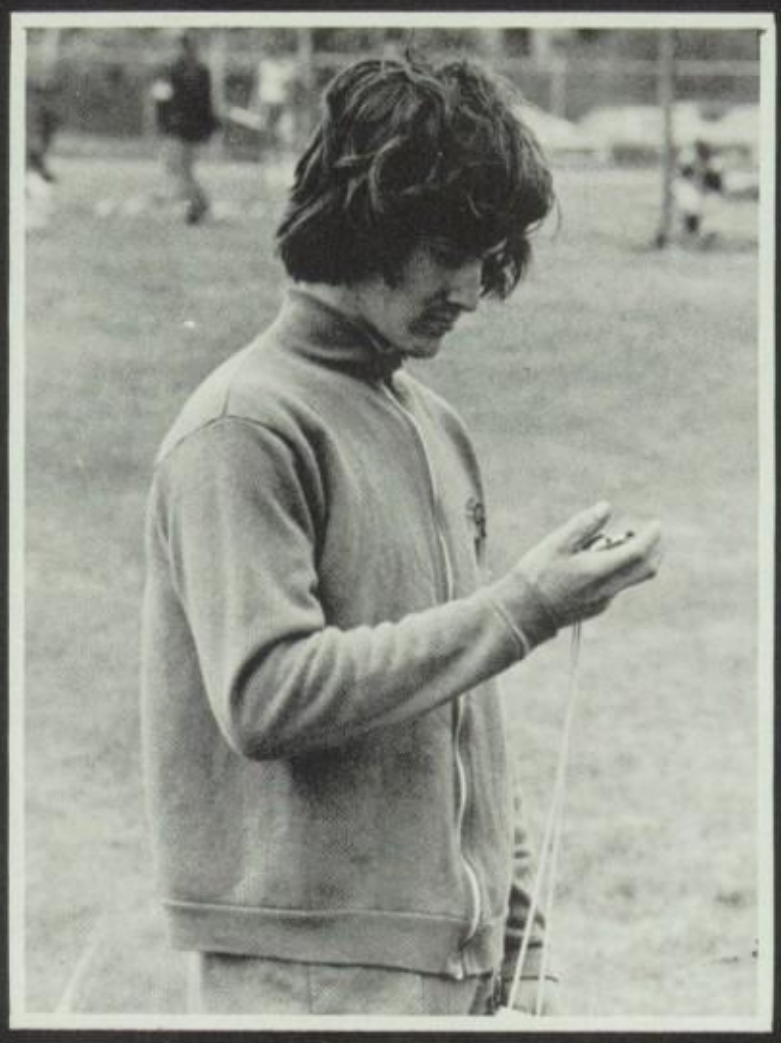
Shirlee Wenig is still playing bass drum, only now for MacDonalds' band. That girl has some beat.

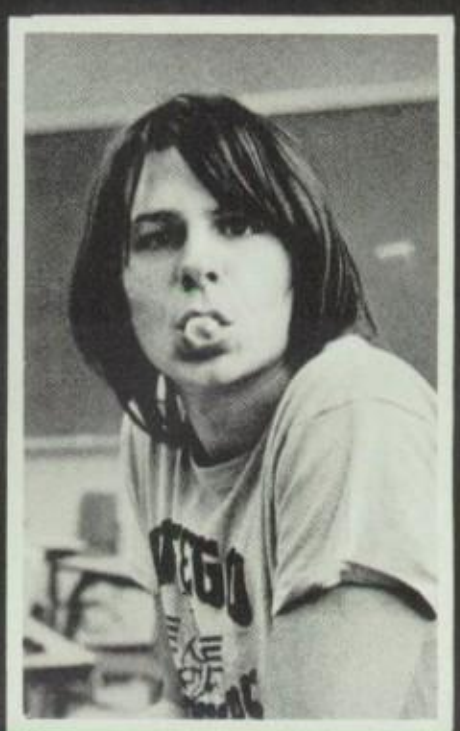
Carol Whitney has published several cookbooks and was recently given the title of "Homemaker of the Year.

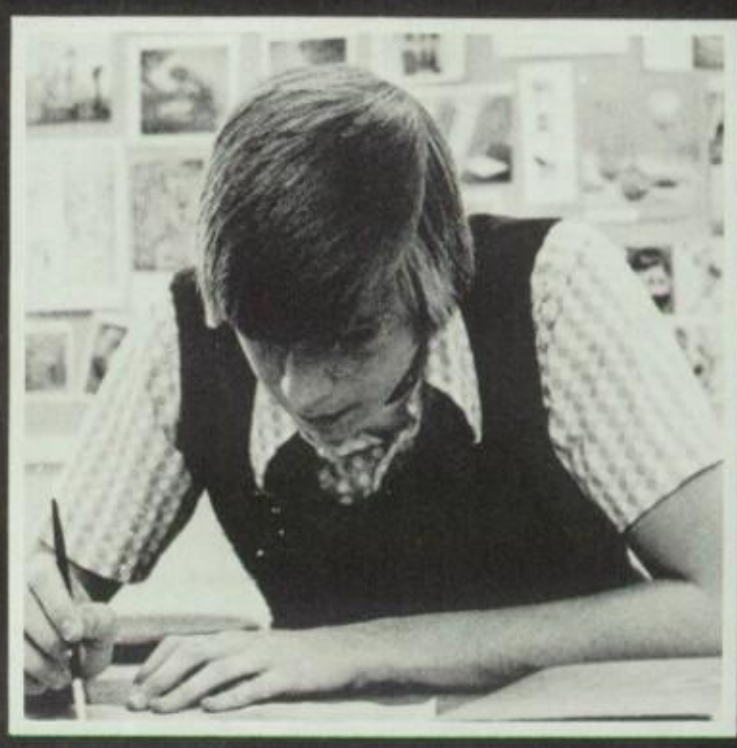
Well, that's all I know about the lives of the class of '74. Who knows where the rest are. But wherever they are, I hope they are happy and I wish good luck to them all.

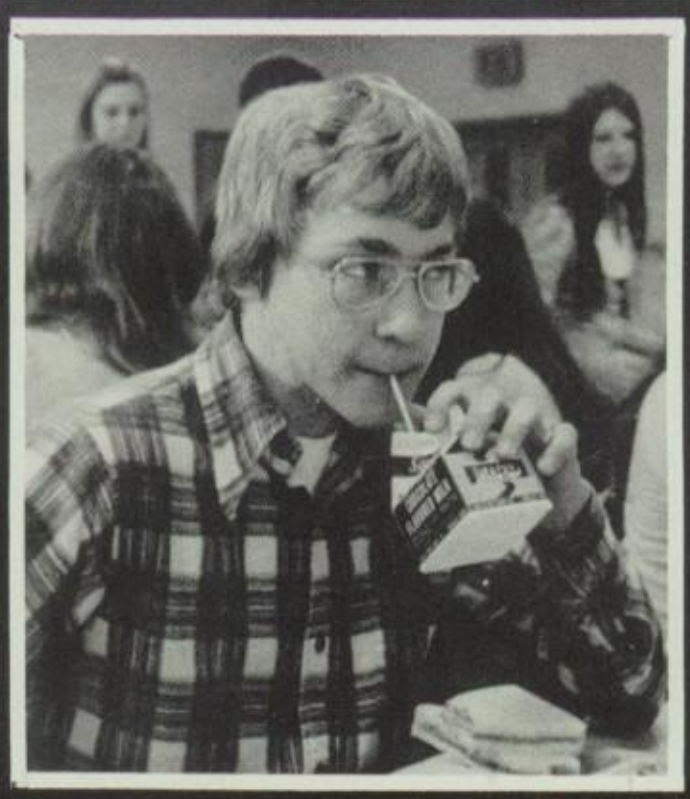
By Pam Pickering

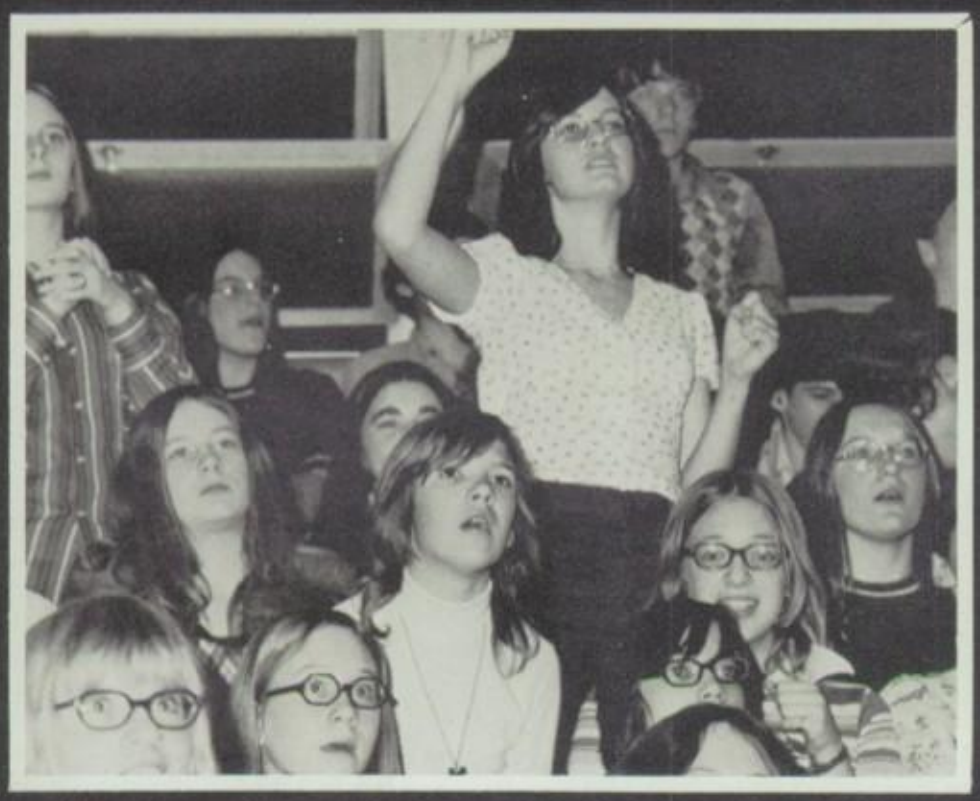


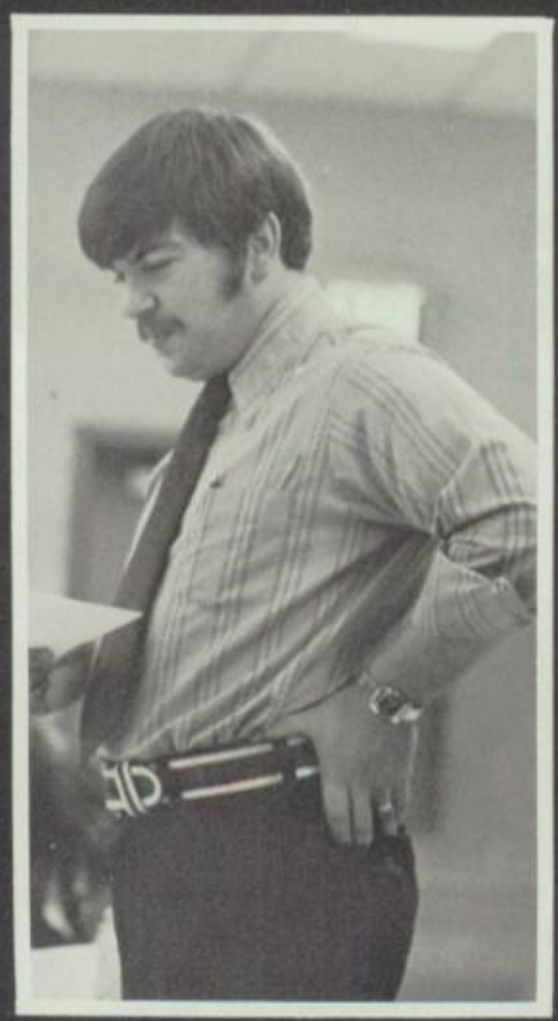












A time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
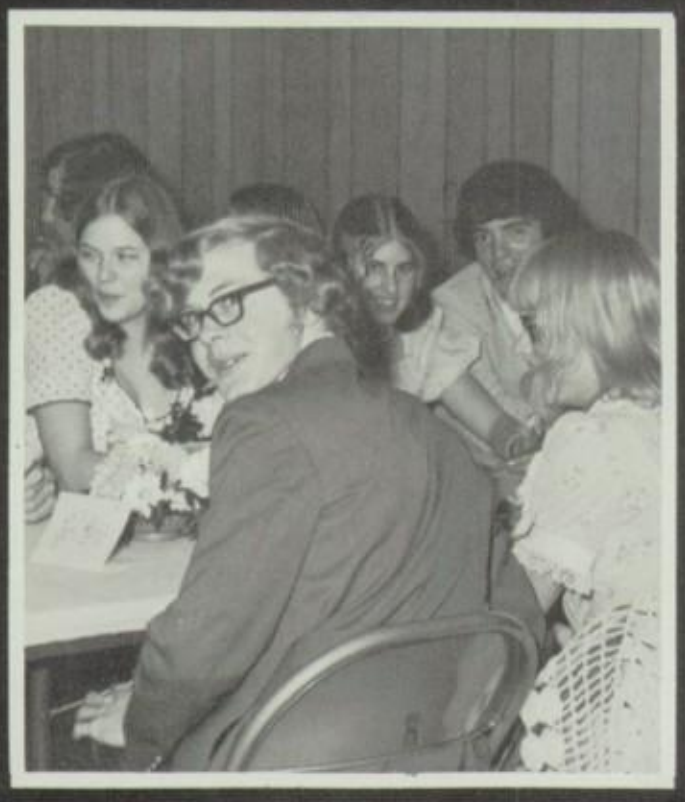
A time to seek,
and a time to lose;
A time to keep,
and a time to cast away;
A time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;



A time to love,
and a time to hate,
A time for war,
and a time for peace.

Penta can open the door to employment or advanced education. Penta can help students who plan to go straight to work after school, or help a student pay his way through college by using a skill he has learned there. It gives students actual work experience in class while they earn their high school diploma.

O. W. E. (Occupational Work Experience) is a program that also allows students to obtain actual work experience while they are also attending school for half a day. O. W. E. is a branch of the Penta County Skill Center.

Our custodians Mr. Larry Trumbull and Mr. Paul Luna along with students Tim Bennett, Dale Barnhiser, Jeff Radanavich, Tim Borders, Willie DuCat, Bob Polan, Bob Pierce, Joe Potter, Wade Bundy and Art Souvenier kept the building in order.

To provide Otsego's students direct to the door service were: Mr. Cloyce Stott, Mrs. Barbara Bader, Mr. James Box, Mr. Chester Brown, Mrs. Mildred Brown, Mr. Frances Conrad, Mr. Kenneth Conrad, Mr. Fred Feather, Mrs. Mary Hatton, Mrs. Clarissa Fortney, Mrs. Marlene Hatton, Mrs. Mary Homan, Mr. Robert Konrad, Mrs. Wilma Mozena, Mrs. Margaret Peterson, Mrs. Shirley Rife, Mrs. Juanita Rudd, Mr. Alan Stott and Mrs. Patricia Wallace.

English and History Have Changes

For the first time Otsego's English curriculum offers students choices in semester courses ranging from Mass Communication to Canterbury Tales. The program which was planned during the 1972-73 school year became a reality when 24 courses became available to students. Such courses as Research Methods, Homemakers English, Debate and Creative Writing were created to fit the students' needs. The program's goal is to make English a worthwhile and enjoyable experience.

The Social Studies Department began revising its program early in the fall to expand the course offerings available to Otsego students. This year's curriculum which offered the traditional two semester American History and World History will be broken into semester courses. Available from catalog listings for next year are such courses as: The Presidency and the Executive, Frontier America, Modern Europe, Ohio and the Maumee Valley, and South America. The social studies courses available will offer a greater variety to meet the students' interests.

A lifetime of teaching is many hours of . . .
preparing units, tests, and exams thinking up original, creative lesson plans working hard to get a point across studying to improve skills sharing ideas with young people smoothing over problems decorating for proms, Homecomings, and banquets.
But much more than this,
It's dedication to the belief that
Educating young people is worth the lifetime.

Our thanks to you . . .

The SPANISH CLUB went together as a group this year to a Toledo restaurant, Loma Linda's in March. They also went together and had a picnic in May.

Club advisor was Mrs. Joan Kilcoyne, who also teaches Spanish I and II. Officers were Rob Lehman, president; and Debbie Asmus, secretary-treasurer.

The FRENCH CLUB held two banquets this year, one was a Crepe Party after school. The second was held at Le Maison Francaise where Mrs. Spears, an advisor, cooked most of the food. The French Club also went to the Art Museum and participated in a French-Spanish volleyball game in which the French won two out of three games.

Besides Mrs. Spears, Mrs. Glasgo is also an advisor. The officers are President, Beth Carlen; Vice-President, Mark Van Hook; Secretary, Tony Adams; Treasurer, Peggy Brown and Newspaper Reporter, Alan Hartley.

"Muggsy's Merry Christmas"

The Drama Club has done some fantastic things this year. Their most outstanding achievement was the spring production of the three-act comedy, "Rest Assured." They also put on the one-act play "Muggsy's Merry Christmas," for the Christmas Assembly.

Their advisor was Mrs. Sharon Elvey and historian was Jackie Parker. All of the meetings were held during the activity period, and were recorded by secretary-treasurer, Terrill Wenner. During their meetings, members learned the different skills of the theater, which were executed during their first big production, "Rest Assured."

The Drama Club has begun a renewal of an old tradition at Otsego--the excitement and hard work of theater.

Library/Office Staff

The Library Staff was a great help to Mrs. Hazel Tracy in keeping order in the library. Helping find books, checking books in and out, and just keeping track of what was going on in the library were their main duties.

Students who have worked in the office this year did many different jobs, such as answering the telephone, typing, running the various machines in the office, and other jobs too numerous to mention. They also learned how varied the duties in the office can be. Their work was greatly appreciated by Mr. Dorothy Grassley, the head secretary.

While members were kept busy baking, time was taken out to go bowling every other Thursday. Other activities included selling Christmas cards, and having some big bake sales uptown in Grand Rapids.

The group went to two breakfasts during the year, at the Holiday Inn located in Bowling Green. The big event of the year was the purchase of six adding machines, the cost being split with the Board of Education, and the purchase of a new ball for the IBM selectric typewriter.

The Journalism Class this past year was made up of an experimentally selected group of students responsible for the 1974 SHIELD, and newswriting for THE MAUMEE VALLEY PRESS and THE DAILY SENTINEL TRIBUNE.

The entire class attended a jounalism workshop at BGSU to pick up some important advice in the fall; and in the winter, one Saturday afternoon, they toured the Ohioprint building in Columbus Grove.

Improvements abounded in the 1974 SHIELD as students worked hard with the faculty and clubs to give them more photography and copy coverage. The work itself started with the advertising campaign in August and went into June as the final pages were completed.

The staff consisted of Sue Lehnert (SHEILD Editor), Pam Smith, Janice Kellermeier, Pam VanVorce, Steve Spathelf, Joe Yeager, Sue Dauer, Kathy Meyer, Darlene Tolles, Al Hartley, Barb Sheldrick and Jeff Yeager.

Otsego received more public news coverage and sports coverage than in many years as reporters Eric Doremus and Darl Boysel supplemented the Journalism Staff along with photographer Dave Garrett.

Additional financial improvements enabled 1975 SHIELD Editor, Kathy Meyer and Class Editor, Sue Dauer to Attend a one-week journalism workshop at Ball State in Muncie, Indiana during July where adviser Ms. Miller acted as a workshop counselor.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was active this year in rejuvenating its chapter by enforcing the four qualities necessary for the selection of new members--scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

New members were inducted at a candlelight ceremony following a banquet with guest speaker Mr. Timothy Smith of BGSU. Parents and teachers were guests of the evening and the Chorus provided musical selections.

In the spring, Tappees were initiated as prospective members at a Tapping Breakfast in their honor.

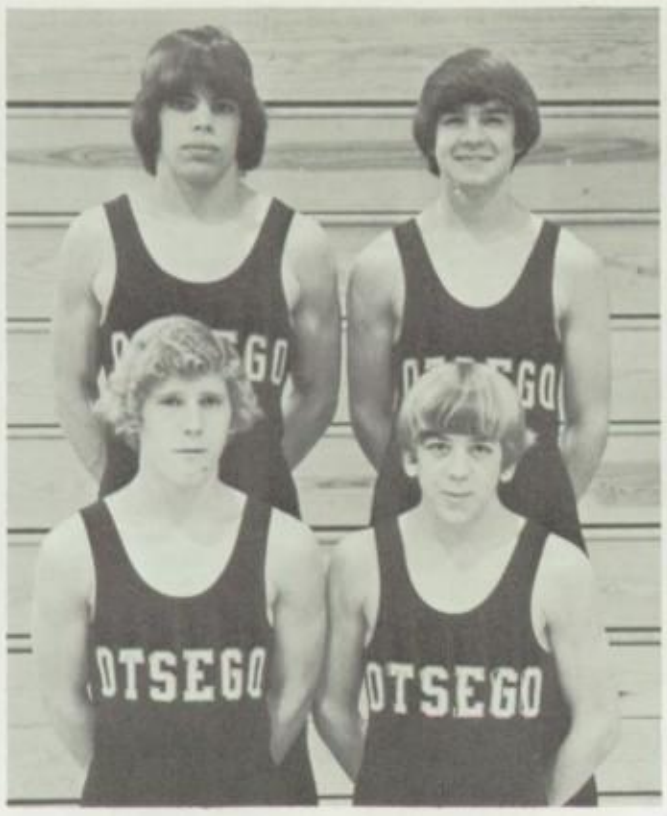
Coach Mustain Trains Wrestlers Hard



These four juniors made it to district: Kneeling; Mark Shank, Steve Asmus; Standing; Roger Borer, Ron Spathelf.

Wrestling is not only hard on the person wrestling, but also for those watching.

The 1974 wrestlers went through a busy and highly successful season. Grapplers had a tough training schedule to follow, filled with plenty of NOT eating and, every now and then, a bite or two between matches, in order to make their weight.

Varsity Coach Bob Mustain and Junior Varsity Coach Merlyn Michaelis led the Knights to the best season our team has seen since wrestling began at Otsego five years ago.

The Knights started out the season with a victory at Lake and closed the season with four juniors making it to district. All of the wrestlers have made us very proud this year and everyone is anxiously looking forward to an even more victorious season next year.

OTSEGO VARSITY AND JV DIAMONDMEN

The 1974 Varsity Baseball team played a limited schedule with a total 17 games, recording 5 wins and 12 losses. The team's eleven members include three senior players, Stan Bucksky, Cub Hinesman, and Mike Kiel.

The 1974 Junior Varsity Baseball team finished with a winning schedule of 4 wins and 3 losses. The 15 man team led by Coach Ferguson shows much promise for the coming seasons.

Editing the Shield has been hearing people shout, "I quit"; having three rolls of film taken, and having all of them sent back with a note saying, "Your pictures are grossly over-exposed and grossly out of focus"; forgetting to take a picture of Warren Gregor, then taking it on the last day of school and not having a place to put him; finding out that you should take pictures of a banquet the day after the banquet; getting idle threats from coaches; turning red hot after encounters with dissenters at least twice a day; selling yearbooks every-day then having somebody wish to purchase one in June be-cause they never knew about it; trying to sell pictures, but getting them stolen instead; using two typewriters when you need six things typed; having one short pencil for 12 people; trying to figure out sports results when they had been pitched the week before; having long conversations with our yearbook representative's wife who doesn't know where he is; and finishing the yearbook on June 18, 1974, at 11:15 a.m. only 18 days after school ended.
